

Letters to the Editor

Dear SFM,

I would like to buy a 2010 January banzuke poster or two. Since I don't live in Japan (anymore), where can I buy them on the internet? Please help.

Thank you.

Mike, Canada

Dear Mike,

Thankyou for sending in a letter with a rare theme.

I have searched the internet up and down and have yet to find a website which sells banzuke.

There may be some members of www.sumoforum.net who possess extra banzuke and are willing to sell some direct to you. Are you a member of this site?

There was a time when the Hana no Mai restaurant, located next to Ryogoku station, sold banzuke. Alas, a few months ago, this restaurant regrettably stopped selling all sumo memorabilia. If you ever come to Japan again, the Takahashi Sumo Memorabilia store in Ryogoku often has banzuke back copies.

Hope this advice helps.

All the best,
